HURLEY, District Judge

Defendant-Appellant Vanderlei B. Ferreira ("Ferreira") was sentenced by this Court on April 15, 2004 to, among other things, 27 months imprisonment and 3 years of supervised release.
Ferreira appealed that sentenced.

Given that the sentence was imposed before the Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Booker, 125 S. Ct. 738 (2005), the Circuit remanded the case "for further proceedings in conformity with [United States v. Crosby, 397 F.3d 103 (2d Cir.
2005)]." Having reviewed the materials that were available to the Court when sentence was pronounced, against the now advisory guideline range of 27 to 33 months, as well as the other sentencing factors delineated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court tentatively concludes that the same sentence would be imposed now, i.e. post-Booker/Fanfan, as was imposed on April 15, 2004. The term "tentatively" is used because the Court desires input from both the government and defense counsel as to whether, notwithstanding the Court's tentative view, a resentencing is required and, if so, why. Additionally, the Court will entertain any other arguments which either counsel believes is germane as a result of the remand from the Circuit.

The parties are directed to submit letter briefs detailing their respective positions on or before July 1, 2005. Either attorney may respond to the other's submission, should he or she care to do so, on or before July 12, 2005.

SO ORDERED.
